

In loving memory of Isabel Crowley.
Born April 21st 1942.

Commenced her journey into eternity and her heavenly home August 6th 2015. Isabel included these words in the text of her funeral service should there have been one:

*I have got my leave. Bid me farewell.
I bow to you all and take my departure.
Here I give back the keys of my door
And I give up all claims to my house.
We were neighbours for long,
and I received more than I gave.
Now the day has dawned,
and the lamp which lit my corner is out.
A summons has come and I am ready for my journey.*

Words of Rabindranath Tagore 1861 - 1941

Farewell my Love, but just for a while.....

Isabel began her journey into eternity at the Princess of Wales Hospital in Bridgend 4.09am Thursday 6th August 2015. She had been progressively ill since December 2014 with arthritis of her spine coupled with pancreatic illness, which became acute and involved her liver. Her heart was not strong and she passed from this life in the personal tranquility that would have been so familiar to her friends. We had enjoyed fifty-two years of love and harmony and were fortunate to spend the three days of her final illness hand in hand as always.

Eternal Rest grant unto her O Lord and let Perpetual Light shine upon her May she, and all the Faithful Departed, forever, Rest in Peace. Amen. (Sylvester)
